

"I Shall Not Want"

Psalms 23 (NKJV)

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

I. I Shall Not Want Because of WHO my Shepherd IS

- A. I shall not want because The LORD is not my genie
- B. I shall not want because The LORD is MY Shepherd

II. I Shall Not Want Because of WHAT my Shepherd GIVES

1 Corinthians 1:20 (HCSB)

Where is the philosopher? Where is the scholar?
Where is the debater of this age?
Hasn't God made the world's wisdom foolish?

Philippians 4:10-13 (HCSB)

"I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that once again you renewed your care for me. You were, in fact, concerned about me but lacked the opportunity to show it. I don't say this out of need, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. I know both how to have a little, and I know how to have a lot. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being content—whether well fed or hungry, whether in abundance or in need. I am able to do all things through Him who strengthens me."

Psalms 73:24-25 (HCSB)

"You guide me with Your counsel, and afterward You will take me up in glory. Who do I have in heaven but You? And I desire nothing on earth but You."
