

"Underneath The Lord's Everlasting Arms"

"The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms..."
Deuteronomy 33:27a (NKJV)

Moses is preparing the people of God for His exodus from this world and for their entrance into the Promised Land. As He does, He reminds them they are "underneath the everlasting arms" of God.

I. PRESENCE OF HIS ARMS

- It is a great comfort to know His arms are there.
- He is faithful to always be there for us. We can trust His arms to hold us and to help us.
- You can let go, but He will be there.

II. POSITION OF HIS ARMS

Underneath...

- There to hold you.
- There to support you.

III. POWER OF HIS ARMS

"In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him." - Psalm 95:4

- He holds the whole world in His hands.
- It speaks of His strength.
- The word is even mention to be His forearm.

Exodus 6:6 - God said, "He redeemed them with His outstretched arms."

- Four times in Deuteronomy He mentions the same as a reminder to them.

Deuteronomy 11:2 - His greatness, His mighty hand, and His outstretched arm.

I Kings 8:42 - "For they will hear of Your great name and Your strong hand and Your outstretched arm."

Jeremiah 21:5 - "I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm..."

IV. PROTECTION OF HIS ARMS

"And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." - John 10:28

V. PRONOUNCEMENT CONCERNING HIS ARMS

"Everlasting"

LEANING ON THE EVERLASTING ARMS

What a fellowship, what a joy divine
Leaning on the everlasting arms
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine
Leaning on the everlasting arms

Leaning, leaning
Safe and secure from all alarms
Leaning, leaning
Leaning on the everlasting arms

What have I to dread, what have I to fear
Leaning on the everlasting arms
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine
Leaning on the everlasting arms

Leaning, leaning
Safe and secure from all alarms
Leaning, leaning
Leaning on the everlasting arms
